

Albert J. (Trey) Dooley, III is a Magistrate for Lexington County serving in the Cayce / West Columbia District since 2012. He was previously an attorney with The Dooley Law Firm, P.A. in Lexington, SC having been employed there for five years as an associate working in the areas of real estate transactions and litigation, general civil litigation, estate planning, corporate transactions and litigation, immigration, worker's comp., and domestic litigation. He also has experience as an architectural draftsman and construction planner.

Judge Dooley is a 1999 graduate of Lexington High School, a 2003 graduate, cum laude, of the University of South Carolina (B.A. in History with a Religious Studies Cognate), and a 2007 graduate of the University of South Carolina School of Law. Judge Dooley also attended Clemson University.

Judge Dooley is a member of the South Carolina Bar, having been admitted to practice in the State of South Carolina in 2007 and in the U.S. Federal Court in 2008. He was a member of the 2009 SC Bar Young Lawyer's Division Task Force on Social Media. Judge Dooley is also a member of the Lexington County Bar Association and former member of its Executive Board.

Judge Dooley is a member of Mt. Horeb UMC and serves on the Board of Trustees there. He also serves on the Advisory Board of the Center for Law and Global Policy Development at River Bluff High School. From 2009 to 2011, Judge Dooley served on the Board of Directors for LifePoint Counseling Center. He has been a frequent Mock Trial judge and is a Life Member of the Carolina Alumni Association.