

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Gary S. Morgan
Magistrate, Lexington County

Growing up in the Irmo area of Lexington County, Gary Morgan graduated from Irmo High School and attended the University of South Carolina, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree while working for the Lexington County Sheriff's Department.

Morgan graduated from the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy, FBI National Academy and has completed training at the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms National Academy and with the Drug Enforcement Administration. He has served as a law enforcement officer, spokesperson and administrator.

In 2002 Morgan was appointed Lexington County Magistrate where he currently presides over the western most District of Lexington County. He also serves on the South Carolina Commission on Alternative Dispute Resolution and on the Summary Court Advisory Committee to the Chief Justice. He too is the Mediation Judge for Lexington County's Mediation Court.

Judge Morgan and his daughter Bailey (19) reside in the Gilbert area of Lexington County.