

Major John E. "JJ" Jones has worked with the Lexington County Sheriff's department since 1997. He began his career at the University of South Carolina Division of Law Enforcement and Public Safety in 1995. Major Jones is currently the Major over Operations at the Lexington County Sheriff's Office where he supervises 350+ employees. He serves under the leadership of Sheriff Jay Koon. Major JJ Jones is a 1992 graduate of Bamberg-Ehrhardt High School and a 1996 graduate of the University of South Carolina. In 2012 Jones graduated from the Anderson University Command College with a Master's Degree in law enforcement leadership. In 2013 Major Jones graduated from the FBI National Academy Class 253. JJ lives in Lexington County with his wife Laura and Son Jacob and enjoys hunting, fishing and coaching little league football.