

Heather Savitz Weiss
Deputy Attorney General - Criminal Division

Heather has served as a manager for the South Carolina Attorney General's Office working in State Grand Jury and General Prosecution since January of 2011. She has had the opportunity to prosecute murders, human trafficking, child abuse, insurance fraud, narcotics and public corruption throughout the state of South Carolina. Prior to coming to work with the Attorney General, she was an Assistant Solicitor for the Fifth Circuit Solicitor's Office in Columbia, South Carolina. She began prosecuting immediately after her graduation from the University of South Carolina School of Law in 1999. As an Assistant Solicitor, Heather served as Special City Prosecutor to the City of Columbia, Domestic Violence Court Coordinator for Richland County, and eventually focused her work on narcotics cases and violent crimes. Heather is currently appointed by the Governor to serve on the Child Fatality Advisory Committee and Domestic Violence Advisory Committee. She was born and raised in Columbia, South Carolina and attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
